Potential of LCA Study in Indonesian Mining Industry

50% of the Indonesian electricity is coal-fired. Approximately 10% of steel production is dependent on coal. Coal will become the dominating fuel for electricity production in Indonesia.

Above is the result of a joint study between IPLHI and JEMAI.

IPLHI in cooperation with JEMAI is studying LCI in electricity production in Indonesia.